

VIRTUAL BROWN BAG SEMINAR

Keeping the Right People

Motivated and engaged employees want to know what job opportunity is next. On your farm, they may be content to start out in an "entry level" role, but top talent will want to know what opportunities might come after that. If you do not have a career path in place for your best employees, you risk losing them to another employer who does. Invest in your employees by providing training to improve their skills. Understand your employee's goals and make sure the training you provide has the desired impact.
